WTZ Summit & Expo FAQ

When is the Work to Zero Summit and Expo
• Thursday, February 17, 2022
  7:30 am – 7:00 pm
• Friday, February 18, 2022
  7:30 am – 1:00 pm

Where will the Summit and Expo be held?
Omni Hotel
400 S. 2nd Street
Louisville, Kentucky

What is the dress code?
Business casual. We recommend dressing in layers as the weather and indoor temperatures can vary.

Is there a discount if I want to attend both the Symposium and Work to Zero Summit & Expo?
Yes. There is a $50 discount if you register to attend both events virtually and a $100 discount if you register to attend both events in-person.

Do you offer a group/military/student discount?
Yes. Please email Tanya Vandermoon to inquire about a special rate.

What are the registration fees?
Check out the event website for all registration options and pricing.

What’s included as part of the in-person registration fee?
In-person registration includes access to the 5 educational sessions, 2 keynote speakers, 1 technology showcase, breakout discussion groups, and call to action dinner on the first day.
Expo featuring innovative tech and safety companies
It also includes breakfast and lunch on both days, as well as coffee breaks.

Will there be a virtual attendance option?
Yes. To learn more, please visit the event website.

Can I register onsite?
Onsite registration will not be available. Register online by Monday, February 7, 2022.

I’m not sure of my membership status or member number with the National Safety Council (NSC). Who can I contact?
To determine your membership status with NSC, please contact Customer Service at (855) 772-6993 or email customerservice@nsc.org.

What is the registration cancellation/refund policy?
Partial refunds will be honored for (in-person registration only) if requested in writing by February 7, 2022. Refund requests received by this date will receive a refund of the total amount paid, less a $50 administration fee. To initiate a cancellation of your registration, please email Tanya Vandermoon (Tanya.Vandermoon@nsc.org). Phone calls will not be accepted. Cancellations received after February 7, 2022, and no-shows are non-refundable.
If I can no longer attend, can I send a substitute?
Substitutions can be accommodated if requested in writing by February 7, 2022, for in-person registration and by February 14, 2022, for virtual registration. To initiate a substitution for your registration, please email Tanya Vandermoon (Tanya.Vandermoon@nsc.org).

How do I request a receipt of my registration?
Confirmation emails are auto-generated and are sent shortly after registration is submitted. If you need to request an additional copy, please email Tanya.Vandermoon@nsc.org.

What health and safety guidelines will be in place to protect people who attend in-person?
Your health and safety is our priority. To create a safe experience for all, proof of vaccination will be required for in-person attendees. Check out our COVID-19 guidelines.

Is there a COVID-19 risk waiver?
Yes, during the registration process there’s an area where you identify that you understand and acknowledge that you risk exposure to and contraction of potentially dangerous disease (COVID-19), by attending the 2022 Work to Zero Summit and Expo you understand and acknowledge the risks associated with diseases and viruses and you are fully aware that exposure may result in, including without limitation, infection, illness, injury, or otherwise. In consideration of the above, you hereby release National Safety Council of any liability related to your attendance.

When can I pick up my badge?
Check-in will be available outside the Olmstead Ballroom, located on the second floor, starting at 7:30 am EST on Thursday, February 17 and Friday, February 18, 2022

What are the dates and locations for future Work to Zero Summit and Expos?
January 31 – February 1, 2023
Long Beach, California

February 20 – February 21, 2024
Louisville, Kentucky